This employee entered on duty as a Special Agent in GS-10 on 9-30-57. He is available for general and special assignment, is interested in and available for administrative advancement, and is being considered for promotion to Grade GS-11.

On 3-31-58 SAC Foster rated him SATISFACTORY.

During an inspection of the Indianapolis Office, January, 1959, the Inspector stated he made an excellent personal appearance and was most enthusiastic about his career in the Bureau. He was intensely ambitious and was already, at that early stage of his career, looking forward to the day when he will be a Special Agent in Charge. At the same time, he could not be considered over-confident. He was enthusiastic about learning work in the field, preparing himself for ultimate administrative advancement. It was believed that he had the background and ability to ultimately develop into an excellent prospect for administrative advancement. He did not have any approved criminal informants although he did have 3 potential criminal informants under development. The necessity of development of criminal informants was thoroughly discussed with him.

On 3-31-59 SAC Powers rated him EXCELLENT.

On 10-15-59 SAC Powers rated him EXCELLENT and his participation in the Informant Program had been Excellent. In a separate communication his SAC recommended he be promoted to GS-11. He is listed as 5'9", 155 pounds, with a medium frame, which is within desirable limits. (148-159)

His daily average overtime for the past six months has been approximately 3 hours and he exceeded the office average 2 of those 6 months.

RECOMMENDATION: SA Liddy has been in GS-10 for over 2 years. In view of his Excellent ratings, very fine attitude, comments of the Inspector during January, 1959, and his SAC's recommendation he be promoted to GS-11, it is recommended he be promoted to Grade GS-11, $7030 per annum.

DATE: 10/20/59

FROM : SAC, INDIANAPOLIS

SUBJECT: GEORGE G. LIDDY
SPECIAL AGENT

ReBulet 10/13/59.

Attached hereto is a special performance rating on SA GEORGE G. LIDDY.SA LIDDY's current weight is 155 pounds, height 5'9", OK frame medium.

SA LIDDY is available and suitable for administrative advancement. As a young agent, SA LIDDY has demonstrated great enthusiasm and interest along administrative lines. He has had excellent experience in the Resident Agency and is well acquainted with problems in a Resident Agency. It is believed that he would make an excellent supervisor at the Seat of Government. However, it is felt that experience along administrative lines in a field office would be preferable before taking on supervisory responsibilities at the Bureau; and even though I believe he has great potential along this line, it is felt he should gain more experience in the administration of an office.

It is recommended that SA LIDDY be promoted from GS-10 to GS-11.

NARRATIVE COMMENTS

Note: The regulations require that OUTSTANDING ratings be supported by a statement in writing setting forth IN DETAIL the performance IN EVERY ASPECT and the REASONS for considering each worthy of SPECIAL COMMENDATION. UNSATISFACTORY ratings must be supported by a statement in writing stating (1) WHEREIN the performance is unsatisfactory, (2) the facts of the (90 day) PRIOR WARNING, and (3) the efforts made AFTER THE WARNING TO HELP the employee bring his performance up to a satisfactory level.

RATING GUIDE AND CHECK-LIST

Note: Only those items having pertinent bearing on employee's performance should be rated. All employees in same salary grade should be compared.

Rate items as follows:

- + Outstanding (exceeding excellent and deserving of special commendation).
E Excellent.
✓ Satisfactory (good or very good).
- Unsatisfactory.
O No opportunity to appraise performance during rating period.

Guide for determining adjective rating:

- "Outstanding" adjective rating requires (A) that all rated elements be "+" and (B) that each and every rated element be factually justified by narrative detail on reverse of Form FD-185.
- "Excellent," "Satisfactory" or "Unsatisfactory" adjective ratings will depend upon the composite result of evaluating all rated elements rather than following any mechanical formulas; however, for an employee to be rated "Excellent" he must not be rated unsatisfactory on any performance evaluation factors on the rating guide and check-list and must be rated "Excellent" or "Outstanding" on the majority of such rating factors. Good judgment must be exercised to insure that adjective rating is reasonable in the light of elements rated.
 A. Any element rated "Unsatisfactory" must be supported by narrative comments.
 B. An "official" adjective rating of "Unsatisfactory" must comply with the requirements described on the reverse of form FD-185.

Re: SA GEORGE G. LIDDY

PART I GENERAL COMMENTS

During the rating period SA LIDDY has been assigned to the Gary Resident Agency and conducts investigations in the criminal and applicant fields. SA LIDDY presents a very neat and conservative personal appearance. He is consistently well groomed and makes an excellent approach to persons with whom he comes in contact. He has a friendly and forceful manner as a conversationalist and receives the attention of those persons with whom he converses. His attitude and enthusiasm are excelled only by hard work in connection with his assignments. For an agent of his experience in the Bureau, he is outstanding, and with proper direction has great potential. During the rating period he has worked on mostly ITSMV cases. For the last two months he has been working on a car theft ring case wherein Chicago is office of origin. However, the work in connection therewith is equalized between Chicago and the area covered by the Gary Resident Agency. This being his first car theft ring case, which carries almost 100 cars at the present time, he has shown a high degree of understanding in handling the ramifications and the administration that goes with such a case. He has kept on top of this case and has done an excellent job thus far.

SA LIDDY handles his cases with aggressiveness and applies a high degree of good common sense. His contacts with the general public and with law enforcement agencies are excellent. There are no physical limitations affecting his performance and he is available for assignment wherever the Bureau desires. He has participated in arrests and can be used on raids and dangerous assignments as a participant. His reports and communications require an average amount of supervision.

The over-all performance of SA LIDDY during the rating period has been excellent.

NARRATIVE COMMENTS

Note: The regulations require that OUTSTANDING ratings be supported by a statement in writing setting forth IN DETAIL the performance IN EVERY ASPECT and the REASONS for considering each worthy of SPECIAL COMMENDATION. UNSATISFACTORY ratings must be supported by a statement in writing stating (1) WHEREIN the performance is unsatisfactory, (2) the facts of the (90 day) PRIOR WARNING, and (3) the efforts made AFTER THE WARNING TO HELP the employee bring his performance up to a satisfactory level.

RATING GUIDE AND CHECK-LIST

Note: Only those items having pertinent bearing on employee's performance should be rated. All employees in same salary grade should be compared. Rate items as follows:

- + Outstanding (exceeding excellent and deserving of special commendation).
E Excellent.
✓ Satisfactory (good or very good).
- Unsatisfactory.
O No opportunity to appraise performance during rating period.

Guide for determining adjective rating:

- "Outstanding" adjective rating requires (A) that all rated elements be "+" and (B) that each and every rated element be factually justified by narrative detail on reverse of Form FD-185.
- "Excellent," "Satisfactory" or "Unsatisfactory" adjective ratings will depend upon the composite result of evaluating all rated elements rather than following any mechanical formulas; however, for an employee to be rated "Excellent" he must not be rated unsatisfactory on any performance evaluation factors on the rating guide and check-list and must be rated "Excellent" or "Outstanding" on the majority of such rating factors. Good judgment must be exercised to insure that adjective rating is reasonable in the light of elements rated.
  - Any element rated "Unsatisfactory" must be supported by narrative comments.
  - An "official" adjective rating of "Unsatisfactory" must comply with the requirements described on the reverse of form FD-185.

Re: SA GEORGE G. LIDDY

PART I GENERAL COMMENTS

SA LIDDY has been assigned to the Gary Resident Agency since September 22, 1958, where he conducts investigations in criminal and applicant-type matters. He is slight in stature and presents a very neat, conservative, well-groomed personal appearance. He has a very friendly and forceful approach, is an excellent conversationalist and creates a very good impression. He is very enthusiastic about his work, has an excellent attitude and has very willingly shared in the workload of this office. Due to his lack of experience, SA LIDDY has not been assigned more complicated types of investigative matters; however, he has displayed initiative, ingenuity, and judgment to such a degree that it is believed that with the gaining of additional investigative experience, he can handle the most complicated type cases. His excellent personality enables him to be highly effective in his personal contacts with the general public and with law enforcement agencies. There are no physical limitations affecting his performance and he is available for assignment wherever the Bureau desires. He has participated in several fugitive apprehensions and can be used on raids and dangerous assignments as a participant. His reports, letters, memoranda, and other outgoing communications have been generally well prepared and he requires an average amount of supervision for an agent of his grade and experience. SA LIDDY should develop into an above-average agent. SA LIDDY was commended by the SAC on April 21, 1958, along with other agents of the Indianapolis Division, for his manner of performance during the course of an investigation of a UFAP-Rape case. By letter dated May 24, 1958, Assistant United States Attorney JAMES L. MILLER, Southern District of Indiana, Indianapolis, commented favorably on LIDDY's conscientious efforts in obtaining requested background information for a case being tried in the U.S. District Court.

The over-all performance of SA LIDDY during this rating period has been excellent.

This write-up is prepared on SA LIDDY inasmuch as his headquarters is fixed at Gary, Indiana, where he is assigned to conduct investigations in general and criminal-type matters. SA LIDDY is in his first office of assignment, having arrived in the Indianapolis Division in January 1958, from training school. He makes an excellent personal appearance, possesses an excellent personality and is very enthusiastic in the performance of his duties. His paper work and investigations have required less than average amount of supervision for an agent of his experience. He has participated in several arrests and can be used on raids as a participant. Due to his limited experience, he has not handled investigative matters of a complicated nature; however, with his continued progress, he should develop into an above average agent and be able to handle more complicated investigative matters. SA LIDDY was commended by the SAC, along with other agents of this office, for his participation in the apprehension of BEN GOLDEN McCOLLUM, one of the Bureau's Ten Most Wanted Fugitives on March 7, 1958. He was also commended by the SAC for his participation in an investigation of a UFAP-Rape case in this office, which led to a successful apprehension. SA LIDDY was admonished by the SAC for having failed to meet a Bureau deadline in a Civil Rights investigation in July 1958.

Rating: Satisfactory

H. A. FITZGIBBON, INSPECTION STAFF: SA Liddy, a first-office Agent, (IDM) has headquarters fixed at Gary, Indiana. He makes an excellent personal appearance and is most enthusiastic about his career in the Bureau. He is intensely ambitious and is already, at this early stage of his career, looking forward to the day when he will be a Special Agent. At the same time, he cannot be considered over-confident. He is enthusiastic about learning work in the field, preparing himself for ultimate administrative advancement.

It is noted that although he has been at Indianapolis slightly in excess of one year, he as yet does not have any approved criminal informants although he does have 3 potentials under development. The necessity of development of criminal informants was thoroughly discussed with Liddy.

It is believed that Liddy has the background and ability to ultimately develop into an excellent prospect for administrative advancement.

RECOMMENDATION:

Continue in present assignment.

I today cease active duty with the Bureau in view of my coming retirement effective at the end of September, and because of this have just turned over to my successor Badge No. 19 which I have carried most proudly for almost twenty-five years.

If not too sentimental a request, may I ask that you consider issuing it to George Gordon Liddy, a new agent at the Indianapolis Office, who is my sister's son. This would keep it in the family. Should this be presumptuous please disregard, and in any event my kindest personal regards to you.

RE: GEORGE G. LIDDY
28 12 30 783

Gentlemen:

Information has been received from the Special Agent in Charge of our Indianapolis Office that your Board forwarded Mr. George G. Liddy a Standby Reserve Notice of Availability which indicates that he has been classified available under the Standby Reserve Program. Mr. Liddy is a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and as such is charged with the duty of investigating violations of the laws of the United States. Since the FBI is required by statutes and Executive orders to protect the internal security of this country, it is respectfully requested your Board reconsider the I-R category determined for Mr. Liddy.

By Presidential Directive dated July 24, 1950, the FBI was designated as the civilian agency of the Federal Government to correlate and disseminate all matters relating to the internal security of our country such as espionage, sabotage, subversion, and related activities. The loss of our key personnel during an emergency period would seriously affect the internal security of this country as these employees are versed in the ramifications of subversive organizations and individuals.

The Secretary, Interagency Advisory Committee on Essential Activities and Critical Occupations, Department of Labor, Washington, D. C., has advised that the occupational category "Federal Security Specialist" has been added to the List of Critical Occupations for Screening the Ready Reserve. Included in this category was the position of Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

In view of our grave responsibilities to this country in any emergency period, it is urgently desired that your Board give favorable consideration to the request that Mr. Liddy's classification be determined as II-R, a reservist not available for order to active duty because of civilian occupation.

Your cooperation in this matter will be appreciated.

DIRECTOR, FBI

August 29, 1958

SAC, INDIANAPOLIS (67-1)

GARY, INDIANA, RESIDENT AGENCY
INDIANAPOLIS DIVISION

The Gary, Indiana, Resident Agency is presently staffed by six Special Agents. As of 8/25/58, 210 cases and 10 leads were pending in the RA or an average of 36.66 investigative matters per agent. The average investigative assignment per agent in the Gary RA has been consistently high for the past several months. On 4/7/58 it was 38.2; on 5/5/58 it was 34.16; on 5/26/58 it was 30.16; on 6/23/58 it was 30.66; on 7/14/58 it was 28.33; on 8/12/58 it was 36.33 and on 8/19/58 it was 38.16. This is considerably higher than the over-all field office average.

The territory covered by the Gary RA consists of the cities of Gary, East Gary and Hobart (a single metropolitan area) and Porter County, Indiana. This territory is adjacent to our Hammond, Indiana, Resident Agency, which is adjacent to the city of Chicago. The territory is highly industrialized in the metropolitan area and is an excellent source of new cases as well as statistical accomplishments. It is not considered feasible from an economic standpoint to send additional agent personnel to Gary on per diem. The Bureau is, therefore, requested to authorize the assignment of one additional agent at the Gary RA.

If the Bureau approves the assignment of an additional agent at the Gary RA, it is recommended that the headquarters of SA GEORGE E. LIDDY be fixed at Gary, Indiana. SA LIDDY is presently assigned to the Indianapolis headquarters city.

SA LIDDY reported to Indianapolis, his first office of assignment, in January, 1958. Since that time he has handled a variety of investigative assignments, both in headquarters city and in a road trip territory. He has consistently exhibited sound judgment and above average intelligence for an agent with his length of service. His paper work requires only a minimum amount of supervision. SA LIDDY is 5'8½" in height and weighs 132 pounds. Although small in stature, he presents an excellent personal appearance and the effectiveness of his contacts with law enforcement officers and others has been entirely satisfactory. I feel that he can perform in a highly satisfactory manner in a Resident Agency, particularly in one the size of Gary where there is a Senior Resident Agent and an alternate Senior Resident Agent who are in a position to afford him additional supervision.

It will be appreciated if this matter is afforded expeditious attention.

Note: The regulations require that OUTSTANDING ratings be supported by a statement in writing setting forth IN DETAIL the performance IN EVERY ASPECT and the REASONS for considering each worthy of SPECIAL COMMENDATION. UNSATISFACTORY ratings must be supported by a statement in writing stating (1) WHEREIN the performance is unsatisfactory, (2) the facts of the (90 day) PRIOR WARNING, and (3) the efforts made AFTER THE WARNING TO HELP the employee bring his performance up to a satisfactory level.

RATING GUIDE AND CHECK-LIST

Note: Only those items having pertinent bearing on employee's performance should be rated. All employees in same salary grade should be compared.

- Rate items as follows:
- + Outstanding (exceeding excellent and deserving of special commendation).
  - E Excellent.
  - ✓ Satisfactory (good or very good).
  - Unsatisfactory.
  - 0 No opportunity to appraise performance during rating period.

Guide for determining adjective rating:

1. "Outstanding" adjective rating requires (A) that all rated elements be "+" and (B) that each and every rated element be factually justified by narrative detail on reverse of Form FD-185.
2. "Excellent," "Satisfactory" or "Unsatisfactory" adjective ratings will depend upon the composite result of evaluating all rated elements rather than following any mechanical formulas; however, for an employee to be rated "Excellent" he must not be rated unsatisfactory on any performance evaluation factors on the rating guide and check-list and must be rated "Excellent" or "Outstanding" on the majority of such rating factors. Good judgment must be exercised to insure that adjective rating is reasonable in the light of elements rated.
  - A. Any element rated "Unsatisfactory" must be supported by narrative comments.
  - B. An "official" adjective rating of "Unsatisfactory" must comply with the requirements described on the reverse of form FD-185.

PART I GENERAL COMMENTS

SA GEORGE G. LIDDY is in his first office of assignment, having arrived in Indianapolis Division in January, 1958 from training school. He makes an excellent personal appearance, possesses an excellent personality and is very enthusiastic in the performance of his duties. He has exhibited an excellent attitude and has indicated a willingness to equitably share in the work load of this division. He has handled routine matters in the general criminal, fugitive and applicant categories and has displayed resourcefulness, ingenuity and judgment far above what is usually expected of a first office agent. His initiative in taking appropriate action on his own responsibility is excellent. He has participated in several arrests and is considered satisfactory to be used on raids and dangerous assignments. Due to his limited experience he has not handled investigative matters of a complicated nature. However, with his continued progress, it is felt that he will be able to handle complicated investigations in a short time. He is available for assignment wherever the Bureau desires. There are no physical limitations affecting his performance. During this rating period SA LIDDY has worked general criminal cases in headquarters city and also has been afforded experience in handling criminal matters in a Resident Agency under the supervision of the Senior Resident Agent. SA LIDDY has attended the required six conferences with the SAC, having completed these conferences on February 21, 1958.

SA LIDDY's progress during this rating period has been very satisfactory and with his continued progress, it is anticipated that he will develop into an above average aggressive and dependable Special Agent.

Liddy is rather slight of build, but presents a very neat, conservative, well-groomed personal appearance. He is an excellent conversationalist, has a friendly and very forceful approach, and creates a very good impression. His attitude toward the Bureau's work is outstanding, and he has no hesitancy in stating that he intends to progress rapidly. He is extremely enthusiastic, is willing to undertake any assignment, is confident that he can perform any assignment, and endeavors to be outstanding in any of his undertakings. He is very intelligent, very exacting, and can be expected to do an outstanding job. His shortcomings might be summed up by stating that he is full of nervous energy which should be controlled. It can be expected that Liddy will progress rapidly in the Bureau's service as an Agent.

During firearms training, Liddy was reliable and cooperative. With additional training in the field, his machine gun and skeet shooting should improve. Firearms qualifications certified.

The writer passed the New York State Bar examination given on July 3rd and 4th, 1957 and upon completion of the residence requirements therefor was issued a qualifying certificate from the State Board of Law Examiners, New York, last October. He reported for duty with New Agents Class # 2 September 30, 1957.

In order to be admitted to the New York State Bar it is necessary that the writer first present himself for interview by a member of the Committee on Character and Fitness and, at a subsequent date, execute the oath of office as a member of the Bar.

The writer has been informed that upon his reporting to his first office assignment, outside the State of New York, he will no longer be considered a resident of New York and will lose his eligibility for membership in the New York Bar therefor. He has been further advised that Monday, December 9, 1957 is the next date scheduled for administering the oath of office and that thereupon the New York Courts will adjourn for the year. The writer expects to report to his assignment at Indianapolis, Indiana at the termination of New Agents Class approximately January 3, 1958.

Through the courtesy of the Clerk of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, it has been arranged for the writer to be interviewed specially by a member of the Committee on Character and Fitness at an unspecified time, convenient to said member, on Wednesday, December 4, 1957.

It is therefor requested that the writer be granted leave, which it is understood will be without pay, for so much of Wednesday, December 4th and Monday, December 9th as is necessary to accomplish his admission to the New York Bar. It is understood that he will return to duty upon completion of his interview and oath by the fastest means available and no later than the same day.

If approved, leave slips for leave without pay will be submitted.

THE FBI PLEDGE FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS

Humbly recognizing the responsibilities entrusted to me, I do vow that I shall always consider the high calling of law enforcement to be an honorable profession, the duties of which are recognized by me as both an art and a science. I recognize fully my responsibilities to defend the right, to protect the weak, to aid the distressed, and to uphold the law in public duty and in private living. I accept the obligation in connection with my assignments to report facts and to testify without bias or display of emotion, and to consider the information, coming to my knowledge by virtue of my position as a sacred trust, to be used solely for official purposes. To the responsibilities entrusted to me of seeking to prevent crime, of finding the facts of law violations and of apprehending fugitives and criminals, I shall give my loyal and faithful attention and shall always be equally alert in striving to acquit the innocent and to convict the guilty. In the performance of my duties and assignments, I shall not engage in unlawful and unethical practices but shall perform the functions of my office without fear, without favor, and without prejudice. At no time shall I disclose to an unauthorized person any fact, testimony, or information in any pending matter coming to my official knowledge which may be calculated to prejudice the minds of existing or prospective judicial bodies either to favor or to disfavor any person or issue. While occupying the status of a law enforcement officer or at any other time subsequent thereto, I shall not seek to benefit personally because of my knowledge of any confidential matter which has come to my attention. I am aware of the serious responsibilities of my office and in the performance of my duties I shall, as a minister, seek to supply comfort, advice and aid to those who may be in need of such benefits; as a soldier, I shall wage vigorous warfare against the enemies of my country, of its laws, and of its principles; and as a physician, I shall seek to eliminate the criminal parasite which preys upon our social order and to strengthen the lawful processes of our body politic. I shall strive to be both a teacher and a pupil in the art and science of law enforcement. As a lawyer, I shall acquire due knowledge of the laws of my domain and seek to preserve and maintain the majesty and dignity of the law; as a scientist, it will be my endeavor to learn all pertinent truth about accusations and complaints which come to my lawful knowledge; as an artist, I shall seek to use my skill for the purpose of making each assignment a masterpiece; as a neighbor, I shall bear an attitude of true friendship and courteous respect to all citizens; and as an officer, I shall always be loyal to my duty, my organization, and my country. I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same, and will constantly strive to cooperate with and promote cooperation between all regularly constituted law enforcement agencies and officers in the performance of duties of mutual interest and obligation.

~~PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL~~

Dear Mr. Liddy:

You are offered a probationary appointment in the Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice, as a Special Agent, Grade GS10 $5915 per annum less 6½% deduction for retirement purposes. Your salary will also be subject to the necessary Federal Withholding Tax. Additional information and instructions are enclosed with this letter.

You should notify this Bureau by return mail if this appointment is accepted, otherwise it will be cancelled. Should you accept, you are directed to report for oath of office and assignment to Room 625, Old Post Office Building, 12th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, Northwest, Washington, D. 29. GENERAL COMMENTS CONCERNING APPLICANT

He appears to be above average in general intelligence. He has been on the Deans' List throughout law school and is a member of the Fordham Law Review. He is alert, expressive and forceful. He is an excellent conversationalist.

On his application he indicates he received a few demerits and restrictions for being late. He states that in high school he was late once or twice a month and in college three or four times per term. He said that in law school he has been punctual and has not been marked late. He understands the necessity for punctuality in employment.

Recommendation: ☒ Favorable ☐ Unfavorable

GEORGE GORDON BATTLE LIDDY
BUAP - SPECIAL AGENT

GENERAL COMMENTS CONTINUED

While in the Army he received an administrative reprimand. He states that he was responsible for small arms in his battery. In about June, 1953, he noted that two carbines appeared to be missing. He could not locate them, and it was difficult to determine from the records whether they were missing or not. He stated that he should have changed the record to indicate that the two guns were missing, but he felt that they might turn up, and he continued to maintain the records as they were. In August, 1953, during an inventory after the transfer of the battery commander, the two guns were reported missing. An investigation was conducted in the course of which he admitted that he should have reported the guns missing when he first determined that they might be missing. He states that he was found not to be financially liable for the loss, but he received a written reprimand from his commanding officer, which became part of his military record.

Applicant plans to take the New York State Bar Examination on July 2, and 3, 1957, and will be available for any SA class thereafter. He is a much better than average prospect when compared with other applicants. He should develop into a loyal, productive employee.

STATEMENT OF WITNESSES

[The statement of witness should tell just what the witness saw personally, or, if he did not see the injury occur, just what he knows about it and when and by whom the information was given him.]

On April 23, 1959, in the afternoon, Special Agent George G. Liddy and I were jointly engaged in official business at 2721 Harrison St., Gary, Indiana. We entered these premises by the rear path. At that time no animal was present. At approximately 2:30 PM we left the premises via the rear path. I walked ahead, SA Liddy some distance behind. As I rounded the corner of a garage, I was attacked by a large dog. I defended myself by striking the dog and was bitten. I then shouted a warning to SA Liddy who at that moment was rounding the corner of the garage, but the warning was too late to prevent SA Liddy from being bitten on the left thigh. Theodore Johnson, owner of the premises subsequently advised me the dog was his and that he had placed it with access to the path unaware of our presence.

Dear [redacted]

Good morning. I have attached the image that I would like to use in a book I am co-authoring with G. Gordon Liddy that will be published by St. Martin's Press. The first printing of the book will be approximately 100,000 copies and should be in stores by January 2006. The image is used in the book to illustrate the global nature of the war on terrorism, including a discussion about the roots and motivations of terrorists. The book includes a discussion on domestic and international terrorist organizations, the government response to date to the threat and a guide for Americans to use to prepare for another terrorist attack on America.

I would like to include the attached FBI wanted poster of Osama bin Laden in the book. In addition, if the FBI has no objections to including the image in the book, I will need to obtain a high resolution image of the poster from you or your staff.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. If you have any questions, please call me at: [redacted]

DETAILS:

By communication dated August 16, 1977, the Philadelphia Division advised as follows:

On August 16, 1977, [REDACTED] Assistant U. S. Attorney, Middle District of Pennsylvania, Williamsport, Pennsylvania, advised that GEORGE GORDON LIDDY, presently confined to the Allenwood Federal Prison at Montgomery, Pennsylvania, is scheduled for release on parole September 7, 1977.

BA 93-3620

The court imposed a $40,000 fine when LIDDY was sentenced. He has refused to pay the fine and may not be released if he has the ability to pay the fine. The Superintendent declined. LIDDY then made application to the U. S. Magistrate WILLIAMS ASKEY, Middle District of Pennsylvania, Williamsport, Pennsylvania.

Magistrate ASKEY has set an evidentiary hearing for September 6, 1977.

AUSA [ ] reviewed LIDDY's application and requested investigation to verify certain information on this application.

FRANCES PURCELL LIDDY, 9310 Ivanhoe Road, Oxon Hill, Maryland, was advised of the identities of the interviewing agents and advised that she was being contacted to verify her husband's declaration of poverty. Mrs. LIDDY advised that she desired to discuss the matter with her attorney prior to furnishing any information. Mrs. LIDDY telephonically contacted her attorney and thereafter, advised that she would cooperate in this matter. Mrs. LIDDY thereafter voluntarily furnished the following information:

She did not know the total amount of lawyer fees that her husband, GEORGE GORDON LIDDY, owed as he never discussed this with her; however, she did know they were extensive. Her husband's current attorney is [REDACTED]

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] Poughkeepsie, New York, telephone [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Her husband also had an attorney by the name of GEORGE HIGGINS (Phonetic), exact address unknown, Boston, Massachusetts, as well as other attorneys whose names she did not know.

Her husband currently has two life insurance policies as follows:

1. Connecticut General
Hartford, Connecticut
Amount: $2,500
Police Number: 550263
2. Veterans Insurance
District Office
Post Office Box 8079
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
Face Value: $10,000
Policy Number: W17482042

She did not know if either of the above life insurance policies had a cash surrender value. She has, however, let the policies lapse as she has not paid the premiums, but she was of the opinion the policies could be re-instated by paying the back premiums.

Mrs. LIDDY advised that she currently owns three vehicles that are all registered in her name and she produced the Maryland registrations for these vehicles which contained the following:

1. 1972 Cadillac
Maryland license BXL 666

3. 1971 Pinto
Maryland temporary registration
Maryland license 127301
VIN: 1T10Y112204

The above described Cadillac has approximately 140,000 on it and is currently not in running condition due to lack of compression on the engine, which made it necessary to recently purchase the above described Pinto for $600.

Mrs. LIDDY advised that she and her husband purchased their house at 9310 Ivanhoe Road, Oxon Hill, Maryland, new in September, 1970 and the house was transferred to her name in September, 1972. Mrs. LIDDY estimated the current value of her house at approximately $62,000 and stated that the current mortgage outstanding was approximately $40,578.98.

Mrs. LIDDY stated that she did not have any assets other than the above described vehicles, her house, furniture and some personal belongings and advised that she had approximately $4,000 in liabilities. # Hate Groups' Internet Use Raises Alarm

Anti-Defamation League Warns Extremists Are at Home on Web

By Serge F. Kovalski
Washington Post Staff Writer

Extreme right-wing groups are increasingly relying on the Internet to spread their anti-government and racist messages and recruit members, according to a new study by the Anti-Defamation League.

An early draft of "Danger: Extremism, the Major Vehicles and Voices on America's Far-Right Fringe," says that hate organizations over the last 18 months have seized on the relatively low cost of using the Internet and its accessibility to a large audience worldwide to create a new vehicle for marketing their materials, exchanging information and attracting sympathizers.

The ADL book, which is scheduled for release on Thursday, states that extremist groups have been bolstered by the "rhetorical support" they have received from segments of mainstream society.

The ADL cited the National Rifle Association's statements last year likening federal law enforcement agents to the Nazi Gestapo as evidence of the "porousness of the line separating the mainstream from the fringe."

It also cited talk radio personality G. Gordon Liddy's statement that the best way to kill a Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms agent was to aim for the head, where there is no bullet-proof vest, as well as recent appearances by several lawmakers on a radio talk show that the ADL says is sponsored by the anti-Semitic Liberty Lobby.

The study contends that the entrance into Louisiana politics of former Ku Klux Klan grand wizard David Duke, who was nominated for president in 1988 by the Populist Party, has encouraged hate group leaders to repackage their views to appear more mainstream.

"When perfidious hate seeps into the mainstream dressed as political rhetoric, it threatens to legitimize intolerance and exclusion as an acceptable means of social change," said ADL National Director Abraham H. Foxman.

Extreme right-wing groups have been the subject of much attention following last year's bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City that killed 168 people and injured more than 500 others. The two suspects, Timothy James McVeigh and Terry Lynn Nichols, had ties to anti-government militias and other far-right groups.

The ADL estimates that paramilitary-style militias are active in 40 states with about 15,000 participants. These armed groups—an angry stew of constitutionalists, tax protesters, isolationists and white supremacists—typically rage against such issues as the deadly confrontations between federal agents and Randy Weaver in Ruby Ridge, Idaho, and the Branch Davidians near Waco, Tex.

They claim that a new world government is being formed through the United Nations whose agents include the president of the United States. Once in place they fear it will impose martial law, suspend the Constitution, institute totalitarian rule and seize all weapons from individuals.

For many of these groups, the more traditional means of disseminating their views—by hand or mail—has largely been replaced by home pages they have established on the Internet.

The ADL said heavy use of the Internet by hate groups began in May 1995 when Don Black, a former KKK head and long-time associate of Duke's, set up a site called Stormfront. This site on the World Wide Web contains a library of white supremacist propaganda and numerous links to other like-minded home pages—including Aryan Nations, William Pierce's neo-Nazi National Alliance and the Posse Comitatus.

Also last year, Reuben Logsdon, who said he was a physics student at the University of Texas in Austin, became

ALLEGED BURGLARY OF THE OFFICE OF THE CHIEF
INVESTIGATOR FOR THE FLORIDA STATE'S ATTORNEY
RICHARD GERSTEIN
(INTELLIGENCE DIVISION)

For your information, the Special Prosecutor's Office (SPO) received information that the captioned office in Dade County, Florida, was burglarized on or about 7/4/72 when Gerstein was investigating campaign practices and contributions. The SPO feels this alleged burglary might have been connected with the activities of the Special White House Investigative Unit known as the "Plumbers" and within the jurisdiction of the SPO. The SPO requested FBI investigation.

By airtel dated 8/28/73, the Miami Division submitted five contact print photographs of latent fingerprints obtained by the Miami PD during its investigation of this matter. These fingerprints were compared by the Identification Division with the fingerprints of Bernard J. Barker and his nine Cuban associates. The results were reported under Latent Case No. A-76539 and were negative.

In order to fully explore all possibilities in this matter, it is felt that the above latent fingerprints should be compared with those of the following individuals who are known or alleged to have been associated with the "Plumbers":

Memorandum reports sensational-type story in Harvard University student publication alleging burglaries of residence of former Director Hoover, and of recent request by Watergate Special Prosecution Force (WSPF) for information concerning such burglaries.

The 11/10/73 edition of "The Harvard Crimson," a Harvard University publication, contains an article captioned "Ervin Committee, FBI Investigate Hoover Death," bearing the by-line of Mark C. Frazier (copy attached). Article alleges that break-in of Mr. Hoover's residence occurred in late Winter, 1972, to retrieve documents thought to be used as potential blackmail against The White House, and that when this failed, a second burglary was attempted during which a poison capable of inducing heart seizures was placed on Mr. Hoover's personal toilet articles. Article claims break-ins allegedly directed by G. Gordon Liddy and carried out by Cubans working under Felipe De Diego. Article claims De Diego confirmed that burglaries had taken place but has recently denied and rejected earlier account.

On 11/19/73, Nathaniel Akerman, WSPF, telephonically advised that a "source" had just informed him that Mr. Hoover's residence had been burglarized in an effort to obtain compromising material and that he, Akerman, would appreciate receiving any information concerning such burglaries. Akerman was asked whether he was aware of the article in "The Harvard Crimson," and after advising he was not, stated that allegations made therein did appear "farfetched." He then repeated his request for any data bearing on possible burglaries.

Memorandum to Mr. E. S. Miller
Re: Alleged Burglaries of Residence of
Former FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover

Review of Frazier's bizarre story shows it to be replete with inaccuracies, half-truths and innuendos. Frazier, for example, notes Mr. Hoover died 5/1/72 rather than 5/2/72 and indicates he resided in an apartment rather than a house. This latter error alone should serve to discount the story of the alleged burglaries which were attributed by Frazier to Felipe De Diego. Further, Frazier has De Diego claiming that De Diego and ten confederates appeared at the funeral of Mr. Hoover, an allegation which is refuted by interview of not only De Diego, but also of the other Cubans involved who have all advised that while they were in Washington at the time Mr. Hoover's body was lying in state at the U.S. Capitol, that they returned to Miami early the following morning (5/4/72) the date of Mr. Hoover's funeral which did not get underway until late morning.

FELIPE

Frazier claims data relating to burglaries was originally furnished by De Diego in mid-August, 1973, and that De Diego has recently refuted his earlier story. De Diego is identical with Arsenio Felipe De Diego Aday who, after being immunized, advised the Florida State Attorney's Office on 5/10/73, that he was one of the three individuals who actually burglarized the office of Dr. Lewis J. Fielding, Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist, in September, 1971. On 6/29/72, we interviewed De Diego relative to his trip to Washington, D. C., in May, 1972. De Diego readily admitted to the trip, stating that it was for the purpose of paying respect to Mr. Hoover whom he characterized as an outstanding fighter against communism.

According to the article, De Diego implicated Humberto Lopez and Jaime Ferrer, both of Miami, in the Hoover break-ins. Lopez appears identical with Humberto Francisco Lopez Perez, long time active in anti-Castro activities, who was interviewed by us on 6/30/72 and again on 8/17/73 relative to the trip by the Cubans to Washington, D. C., on 5/3/72. The name of Jaime Ferrer has not previously surfaced in connection with activities of the Cubans; however, he may be identical with Angel Ferrer, who also traveled to Washington on 5/3/72 and who has been interviewed by us concerning this trip on 6/30/72 and again on 8/14-15/73.

Memorandum to Mr. E. S. Miller
Re: Alleged Burglaries of Residence of
Former FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover

We, of course, have no information to indicate that the residence of Mr. Hoover was burglarized, as alleged, or that his death possibly resulted from an exotic poison. We have vigorously investigated the 5/3-4/72 trip of the Cubans from Miami to Washington under the direction of Bernard L. Barker and, as noted above, participants in this trip have been thoroughly interviewed by us concerning it. Reinterviews of these people conducted in August, 1973, were done at the request of the WSPF, which is of the belief that the trip was actually directed by Liddy and/or Howard Hunt. Liddy and Hunt are both convicted Watergate conspirators. Perhaps the most telling argument against the veracity of the story centers around the fact it reportedly originated with De Diego, a Miami Cuban who reportedly has been involved in anti-Castro activities for some time. It does not appear at all possible that De Diego and his large group of associates could have kept such a sensational story secret from May, 1972, until August, 1973, when Frazier allegedly was briefed on it by De Diego.

Frazier's wild allegations must be considered in the light of information provided by our Boston Office in October, 1972, to the effect that Frazier has attempted to extort information from an official of the Bell and Howell Corporation by threatening to print a story that this company had made equipment used in the Watergate bugging. On 10/6/72, Frazier appeared at the Boston Office and unsuccessfully attempted to elicit information concerning the Watergate prosecution.

Based on above, it is felt we should take no action whatsoever with respect to Frazier's article, and that in compliance with request of WSPF, we advised them that files of the Bureau contain no information to substantiate allegations of burglaries of Mr. Hoover's residence. Letter to this effect attached.

Memorandum to Mr. E. S. Miller

Former FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover

ACTION:

1. That no further action be taken with respect to the article written by Mark C. Frazier in "The Harvard Crimson," edition of 11/10/73 alleging burglaries of Hoover residence.

Ervin Committee, FBI Investigate Hoover Death

By MARK C. FRAZIER

Copyright 1973 The Harvard Crimson, Inc.

Cubans linked to Watergate may have burglarized the home of and possibly killed J. Edgar Hoover last year, a source close to federal investigations has told The Crimson.

The source, who has given affidavits to the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Ervin Committee, said at least two others familiar with the Cuban underground have given the same testimony when interviewed by the probes between August and November.

The break-ins were allegedly directed by G. Gordon Liddy and carried out by Cubans working under Felipe De Diego, who participated in the burglary of the Ellsberg psychiatric files and in the first Watergate bugging attempt.

Hoover died on May 1, 1972, in the midst of mounting disputes with the White House. The cause of death was listed as "hypertensive cardio-vascular disease."

DeDiego admitted, and then denied, that a burglary of Hoover's apartment had taken place.

In a conversation with this reporter in mid-August, DeDiego—a former CIA agent then facing indictment for the Ellsberg burglary—first confirmed that he knew of the Hoover incident.

"I am under my lawyers' instructions that I should tell nothing," DeDiego said. He added, however, that he hoped he would be in a position to "talk about everything" within two weeks.

In response to a question as to who might say something in the meantime about the Hoover break-in, DeDiego named Humberto Lopez and Jaime Ferrer, both of Miami. Neither could be reached for comment.

When the reporter asked DeDiego to confirm that the two were associated with the Hoover break-in and not the Ellsberg or Watergate burglaries, DeDiego stated, "Yes, they were involved in that raid."

DeDiego asserted yesterday, however, that the account of the August conversation was "completely wrong," and said, "I don't know of any break-in."

He added that all his phone conversations were recorded and that there would be "trouble" if The Crimson's version of his statements was incorrect.

The Miami Herald was unsuccessful last night in reaching DeDiego with a request to hear the August tape.

A source who had worked with DeDiego in the past said that DeDiego may have been trying to invent stories of crimes last summer in order to persuade Justice Department lawyers to grant him immunity from indictment for the Ellsberg burglary.

Among the claims brought out in the affidavits to the Ervin Committee, a past associate of E. Howard Hunt said, was that

DeDiego and at least two co-workers registered in a Washington, D.C., Holiday Inn two days before Hoover's death under false names.

A further suspicious occurrence, he said, was the appearance of DeDiego and ten confederates at the funeral of Hoover several days later. In televised hearings before the Watergate committee this September, Hunt said the Cubans were "protecting" Hoover's body from protesters, but could not explain why the Committee to Re-Elect the President paid to provide the service.

The first alleged break-in took place in late winter of 1972 to retrieve documents that were thought to be used as potential blackmail against the White House, the source said.

Hoover at the time was in poor graces with the White House as a result of his veto of a White House intelligence force in 1971, and his refusal to take hints later in the year from the president that he resign.

When the first raid failed to yield results, the source continued, a second burglary was attempted. This time, whether through misunderstanding or design, a poison of the thyon-phosphate genre was placed on Hoover's personal toilet articles, he said.

Thyon-phosphates can induce heart seizures and are undetectable unless an immediate autopsy is performed.

Crimson: To make sure we're referring to the same thing, they[the two Cubans] were with the Hoover break-in and not the Ellsberg or the first Watergate break-in, right?

DeDiego: Yes, they were involved in that raid.
